

Maria del Carmen Rodríguez Larrain

SUMMARY

Over ten years' experience as a student advisor, educational consultant and program coordinator, bilingual in Spanish, with experience designing and implementing educational programs, supporting educational technology, and advising diverse student populations in both K-12 and college settings.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Field Placement Coordinator, Department of Teacher Education Hayward, California
California State University, East Bay 2017 - current

Coordinate clinical field experiences for pre-service teachers by providing comprehensive advisement to students from diverse background and with varied needs.

Liaise with teachers and administrators to represent SUCEast bay, recruit mentor teachers, and resolve sensitive student issues.

Manage complex data sets to track student progress and adherence to state program standards of both internal decisionmaking

Maria del Carmen Rodríguez Larrain

Field Placement Coordinator, School of Education

Chico, California

Maria del Carmen Rodríguez Larrain

Manager, Training and Development
Kaplan K12 Learning Services

Oakland, California
2006 -2008

Designed and implemented program assessment measures, both quantitative and qualitative, including attendance and grade reports, surveys, rubrics, focus groups, portfolios and observational tools.

Developed tra